

2017 Teaching About East Asia Workshop

4 Day Workshop

Saturdays, February 25, March 4, and March 11 from 8:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. and April 29 from 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

International Center, Room 303

Continental breakfast and light lunch included

Course Description:

This National Consortium for Teaching Asia (NCTA) program targets 6 - 12th grade teachers of World Cultures, World History, and World Geography.

This 30 hour course will provide an overview of the modern history and culture of China, Japan, and Korea with special emphasis on pedagogy, best practices, classroom applications, and resources.

Benefits:

- Free four day workshop.
- $500.00 teacher stipend upon successful completion of course requirements.
- $300 in free teaching resources.
- 30 SCECH credit hours upon successful completion of the course (applied for)
- Continuing professional development opportunities, including international study tours.

Registration forms and instructions at:

<http://asia.isp.msu.edu/outreach/workshops.htm>

**Register now - space is limited.*

Contact:

Jennifer Pippin, Outreach Coordinator
Michigan State University
Asian Studies Center
pippin1@msu.edu
Tel. (517) 353-1680

This program is sponsored by the Indiana University NCTA National Coordinating Site (East Asian Studies Center).