

Developing An Advocacy Kit for your Chinese Language Program

New Framework for Mandarin Language Education

More and more Chinese language programs have encountered questions and doubts about students' needs and efficacy in learning the Chinese language and culture. In this workshop, Dr. Shuhan Wang will introduce a newly developed framework and guide the participants to explore innovative ways of teaching and learning Mandarin language and Chinese cultures in today's dynamic global landscape. Participants will develop useful tools for advocating their Chinese language programs.
